

Evolution of Mobile Phones

PHONE EVOLUTION

From the huge 80 lbs, gigantic machines to the tiny devices that easily fit in our pockets, the journey of mobile phones is truly remarkable.

But what does this transition look like?

1973

Martin Cooper invented the first mobile phone

Motorola's Zac Morris phone was launched for around $4000

1989

1992

The first text message was sent that read 'Happy Christmas'

Motorola launched the first flip mobile phone, StartTac

1996

1998

A new technology, Bluetooth, hits the market

J-Phone and Sharp Technologies developed the first mobile camera phone

2000

2003

Nokia 1100 was launched, and it became the top-selling phone of all time

The first iPhone was launched that had several apps and a touchscreen

2007

2011

Visa and Google launched their mobile wallet services

The most popular augmented reality mobile game, Pokemon Go, was launched

2016

2019

5G, the fastest generation of network was introduced

Source: Business Insider