

CLOUD COMPUTING

10 Amazing Facts About Cloud Computing!

Cloud Computing is a popular term today that we hear every now and then. Actually, cloud computing entails the use of a vast network of interconnected internet-hosted remote servers, called cloud, for availing services such as storage, software, database, networking, and various IT resources, over the internet. It is a kind of virtual server. The biggest advantage of this computing service is that it is dependable, secure, and readily available. Have a look at the 10 amazing facts about cloud computing that will add to your knowledge about this technology

FACTS 01

Cloud Computing is up to 40 times more cost effective for a Small and Medium Business (SMB), compared to running an in-house IT system

94% of SMBs have found security benefits in the cloud that they didn't receive in their on-premises service.

FACTS 02

FACTS 03

70% of businesses have reported that they've been able to reinvest funds into their business by the virtue of using the cloud-computing technology

80% of the companies that move to cloud witness improvements within their IT departments in less than six months.

FACTS 04

FACTS 05

A new cloud server is added for every 600 smartphones or 120 tablets in use

75% of businesses report that availability of service has improved since moving to the cloud.

FACTS 06

FACTS 07

As part of the "cloud-first" policy, 48% of the U.S. Government agencies have begun using the cloud!

About 60% of the organizations today are preferring to hire professionals with cloud expertise

FACTS 08

FACTS 09

According to an estimate made by industry experts, by 2020, 40 Zettabytes of data will be held in the cloud; this is a really huge figure indeed

By 2020, cloud computing will cross the $270 billion mark in investment.

FACTS 10